

Report on the KINDRA Hungarian National Workshop

Date: August 26th, 2016

Place: Sárospatak, Theological Academy, Hungary

Inside the Annual Field Meeting of the Hungarian Geological Society

Chair. Éva HARTAI

Participants: 26

The program:

Éva HARTAI: The KINDRA Project. Knowledge Inventory for Hydrogeology Research

Viktória MIKITA, Péter SZÜCS, Éva HARTAI: The HRC-SYS. A new approach to structuring the hydrogeological researches

Viktória MIKITA, Péter SCHAREK: The European Inventory of Groundwater Research (EIGR), aims and structure

Endre BITAY, Tünde GOMBOS, Ferenc PÁLFALVI, Anita JOBBIK, Marianna VADÁSZI: The use of terrestrial heat in Hungary on the basis of an example in Debrecen

Lajos GÖÖZ: The geological description of Tokaj Mountains and the possibility of thermal water research

Péter GRUBER, Dagmar HAVIAROVÁ, Ilma BALÁZS, Tibor MÁTRAHALMI, Antal SERFŐZŐ, Magdolna AMBRUS: Water tracer tests in Haragistya – Szilice – Borzova carstic region

The discussed themes:

The situation and possibility of the hydrogeological research in Hungary, contact among the universities and institutions. Role of the private sector in the work.

Some photos from the workshop:

